Dear Ms. Brunsch:

This is in response to your request, dated February 9, 2000, seeking information from the military personnel record of Alonzo Watts (Ref: RK 511 EF JUSTL), a former member of the United States Armed Forces.

We have searched for the military personnel record of the individual named in your request, and have located responsive records.

Information contained in these responsive records which is not exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act is being released to you. Pursuant to an Agreed Court Order, the Department of Defense permits the disclosure of the veteran's name; dates of birth and service; city/town and state of residence and date of address; service number; marital status; dependents (including name, sex, and age); rank/grade; salary; assignments and geographical location of assignments; source of commission; military and civilian educational level; promotion sequence number; decorations and awards; duty status; official photograph; records of court-martial trials (unless classified); place of induction and separation; and any other information in the records which relates to the veteran's official activities.

For veterans known to be deceased, the Department of Defense also permits, pursuant to an agreed Court Order, the disclosure of home address; place of birth date and location of death; and place of burial.

I hope that the information provided will be of assistance to Mr. Justl.

Sincerely,

CHARLES PELLEGRINI
Management Analyst
